

PENHALIGON'S

Steeped in history, this British fragrance house was established in the late 1890s and has since earned numerous royal warrants. Distinctive, discerning, elegantly old school, the Penhaligon's scent stable boasts a steady stream of high-profile followers.

Penhaligon's Artemesia

A fresh oriental mix of green apple, jasmine tea, nectarine and final notes of wood, musk and amber. The bottle is a keeper in itself.
50ml, $135. Body Lotion, 150ml, $60.00.

Penhaligon's Victorian Posy

Feminine, unique and glamorous. A classic fragrance for those who favour distinctive florals. A citrus top note leads to a middle of violet, jasmine and rose before ending with base notes of patchouli and vetiver.

Beautiful.
50ml, $135.

Penhaligon's Bluebell

This unmistakable fragrance is a celebrity favourite with Kate Moss, Sienna Miller and the late great Princess Diana among the long list of devotees. A fine example of simple floral notes at their flirtatious best.

50ml, $135.

Penhaligon's Castile

Neroli, bergamot, orange blossom, rose, precious woods and musk mingle marvellously in this classic European cologne. Some consider it an aphrodisiac, we call it 'Summer delight'.
50ml, $110.

Penhaligon's Blenheim Bouquet

Originally created for the Duke of Marlborough, this iconic fragrance is a favourite of royalty, men of influence, and the monied set. Luxuriate in the refined charms of citrus, musk and pine.
100ml, $160.
